Notice of Market Dominant
Price Adjustment

Docket No. R2017-1

PUBLIC REPRESENTATIVE MOTION
TO REQUEST ISSUANCE OF INFORMATION REQUEST

(October 20, 2016)

On October 12, 2016, the Postal Service filed a Notice of Market Dominant Rate Adjustment.¹ In accordance with 39 C.F.R. §§ 3001.21(a) and 3007.3(c), the Public Representative moves for the Commission to issue an information request for the purposes of generating sufficient information to evaluate the proposed rate adjustment and clarifying the record. The data and information sought are relevant and material to the Commission's duties under 39 U.S.C. § 3622. The proposed questions follow:

1. Please provide the proposed revised version of the Market Dominant price list (such as Notice 123) planned to be effective on January 22, 2017.
2. The Postal Service states that "[e]ffective January 22, 2017, the name of Standard Mail will change to 'USPS Marketing Mail.'" Notice at 26.
 - a. When does the Postal Service plan to require mailers of Standard Mail to complete this change to the mail piece indicia?
 - b. Will there be a transition period (during which mailers may use both the Standard Mail indicia as well as the USPS Marketing Mail indicia)? If so, approximately how long will that transition period last?

¹ United States Postal Service Notice of Market Dominant Price Adjustment, October 12, 2016 (Notice).

Respectfully submitted,
